

WHEREAS, Sioux Falls is planning its first annual St. Patrick's Extravaganza to commemorate the Irish Tradition; and,

WHEREAS, The immigrants from Ireland and descendant of the Irish have made a vital and vocal contribution to the history and development of the largest city in the Dakotas; and,

WHEREAS, The Irish have, by their role in the business, academic and educational areas provided a distinctive quality to the lives and history of South Dakota by their garrulous and sunny disposition based on a firm policy of never remaining silent if an opportunity to speak presents itself; and,

WHEREAS, It appears special recognition by way of observance should be made of such occasion:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Monday, March 17, 1980, as in South Dakota and urge all to observe the Irish contribution to our society and communion.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twelfth Day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty

WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, GOVERNOR
